Substantive session of 1995
Geneva, 26 June-28 July 1995
Item 5 (e) of the provisional agenda*

SOCIAL HUMANITARIAN AND HUMAN RIGHTS QUESTIONS:
ADVANCEMENT OF WOMEN

Accreditation of non-governmental organizations to the Fourth World Conference on Women

Note by the Secretariat

1. By its resolution 49/243 of 21 April 1995, the General Assembly requested that the deadline for applications for accreditation of non-governmental organizations to the Conference should be extended to 28 April 1995, and that those applications should be considered in a transparent manner in accordance with the criteria set forth in the annex to General Assembly resolution 48/108.

2. The General Assembly also requested the secretariat of the Fourth World Conference on Women to communicate in writing with those non-governmental organizations which had applied for accreditation to the Conference by 15 March 1995, but had not yet been accredited, informing them of the reasons why the secretariat had not forwarded their names to the Commission on the Status of Women for accreditation and inviting them to submit, within four weeks of the date of transmittal of the secretariat's written communication, further relevant information concerning their qualifications for accreditation.

3. The secretariat continued to receive new applications until the new deadline of 28 April 1995, as requested by the General Assembly. In early May the secretariat for the Conference also communicated in writing with all those non-governmental organizations referred to in paragraph 2 above, requesting replies by 31 May 1995.

4. The purpose of the present note is to provide the Economic and Social Council with the names of those non-governmental organizations which, having submitted their applications for accreditation to the Conference by 28 April 1995, provided the information and documentation needed by the secretariat of the Conference to recommend them to the Economic and Social Council for accreditation in keeping with General Assembly resolutions 48/108 and 49/243. The list of these organizations is contained in annex I to the present note.

5. Annex I also contains the names of organizations that did not earlier meet the requirements for the preliminary review, but which on the basis of additional information and/or documentation supplied appear to be competent and relevant to the work of the Fourth World Conference on Women.

6. Annex II to the present note contains the list of organizations referred to in General Assembly resolution 49/243 which the Conference secretariat is not in a position to recommend based on the information and documentation supplied. Those organizations are listed with a code that refers to the reasons for non-recommendation, as requested in paragraph 6 of resolution 49/243.

7. The codes for non-recommendation which appear in annex II represent the specific reasons for non-recommendation applied within the broad framework of "competence and relevance" as provided in the guidelines for the review established by the General Assembly in its resolution 48/108. The codes are as follows:

1. The organization was strictly local, or provided insufficient evidence to demonstrate that it had national or international membership/activities.

2. The primary objective and/or purpose of the organization was either not clearly relevant or seemed to be outside the substantive scope of the Fourth World Conference on Women and its preparatory process.

3. Not enough information was supplied to enable the secretariat to complete its review.

4. The group was not a well-established, or bona fide, non-governmental organization, and/or did not provide information to demonstrate that it was an incorporated organization in the country in which it maintained its headquarters.
